

ISUenergy Participation Terms and Conditions

1 Personal data

By confirming your registration for the International Summer University ISUenergy events and participation in the activities offered by the «International Summer University Renewable Energy and Sustainability e.V.» (hereinafter “ISUres”), you agree that:

- ISUres protects your personal data and characteristics;
- ISUres creates reports about your participation in activities and academic information that you provided during your online registration for statistical purposes only and in an anonymized form.

By confirming your registration, you also have the guarantee that:

- ISUres will anonymize your personal data and characteristics if you so desire.
- ISUres will not share your data with third parties, with the exception of your first name, last name, and university status, if you wish to use the services of these third parties.
- ISUres will do its utmost to protect your data from accidental or fraudulent leaks.

By confirming your registration and participation, you agree to:

- Not to harm other registered users on ISUenergy events;
- Not to impersonate others in order to gain access to services to which you are not entitled;
- Not to attempt to circumvent security systems in order to obtain information to which you would not be entitled.

2 Individual insurance

It is your responsibility to take out individual insurances against the risks of accidents, health issues, theft, or other any damage or prejudice (material or personal) that may occur during the activities offered by ISUres as part of ISUenergy events. ISUres declines all responsibility in this regard. ISUenergy will cover risks caused by the organisation.

3 Activities

ISUenergy Activities within the event framework are generally subject to a fee. Registration can only be confirmed once payment has been received. Only persons whose registration has been validated may participate in the activities, with the exception of duly announced test and information events.

4 Prices

Prices offered are fixed, unless otherwise stated, and apply to all planned activities of ISUenergy, incl. accommodation, regardless of actual participation in these activities. There are 3 price categories:

- Student fees: Preferential price reserved for bachelor's and master's students
- Student fees: Preferential price reserved for PhD students
- External price: Subject to availability and unless otherwise stated, courses are accessible to all at the full price if their application has been accepted.

The rate applied depends on the academic status of the person at the time of registration. Country of residence and other factors may be considered at discretion of ISUenergy. To benefit from the preferential rates, you must update your academic status in your personal account profile at your home university before you begin the registration process.

5 Refunds

- If an ISUenergy event is cancelled or an application is rejected, the registration fees will be refunded in full. In the event of force majeure or a health crisis, ISUres will determine the guidelines for compensation for cancellation.
- No further refunds will be granted.

6 Cancellation

ISUres may decide at any time to close the ISUenergy event (due to insufficient staff or other reasons). In this case, the registration fee will be refunded. In the event of cancellation of the activity, no compensation for damages or interest will be paid.

7 Special conditions

ISUres reserves the right to:

- not open activities that would attract an insufficient number of registrations;
- adapt the teaching modalities (face-to-face, hybrid, or distance learning) to the circumstances;
- take any measures deemed appropriate to ensure the smooth running of the entire ISUenergy event;
- sanction or even exclude any person whose behaviour is unacceptable or seriously prejudices the interests of the organizers of ISUenergy.

8 Photos, video and audio recordings

Unless you expressly state otherwise by email, ISUres is entitled to take photos, videos, or audio recordings during all activities that take place within the framework of ISUenergy and to use them for documentation or advertising purposes.

With the express consent of the organizer and the other participants, you are entitled to take photos, videos, or audio recordings during all ISUenergy activities in which you participate. These recordings may be sent to ISUres for documentary or promotional purposes (especially on social networks).

9 Participation

By registering for ISUenergy, you agree to respect and ensure compliance with the principles that guide ISUres' mission:

- Principle of inclusion: Respect for personal diversity;
- Principle of sustainability: Conservation of material resources.

10 Sanitary measures

By registering for and participating in ISUenergy events, you agree to the following:

- Respect the health measures established by your home organisation and ISUres;
- Respect the conditions of access;
- Notify the organizers of ISUenergy event of the activity, followed by any possible quarantine or isolation measures that would be communicated to you, and comply with them;
- Accept necessary format changes (in-person, hybrid, remote) of the event in which you participate.

11 Final clause

These General and Special Terms and Conditions were drawn up by ISUres on 17 December 2025, and are effective immediately. They are subject to change without prior notice.
